SUBJECT: Collocation of CIA/DIA Facilities at Langley

1. Several weeks ago the DCI tasked the undersigned and a representative of the Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA) to examine the feasibility of collocating or consolidating the proposed new DIA Headquarters Building at Langley on the CIA compound rather than at Bolling Air Force Base as presently planned by DIA. The feasibility study was submitted as requested, and the DCI has now requested additional, far more specific information on not only DIA's construction plans but also the advantages, both economic and operational, which would result from such a collocation or consolidation. Your assistance is requested in developing this latter information.

2. Specifically, it is our intent that the addressee's, being very knowledgeable in a given functional area (communications, security, data processing, analytical functions, etc.) examine similar functions within DIA and then specify and quantify the extent to which economic and operational advantages would result from the collocation or consolidation of DIA at our Headquarters site. As soon as DIA approval has been obtained, we will arrange for you to meet with your counterparts within DIA to make such an assessment. Based on the time allotted for the original study, we anticipate that several weeks will be allotted for this work before a consolidated report of advantages need be submitted to the DCI.

3. You will be advised as soon as DIA approval to proceed has been obtained. In the interim, several brochures describing DIA consolidation plans are attached for your information.

4. Your help in this effort is very much appreciated. If you have any questions, please give me a call on extension
